

Medical Unit Dinner Meet Tuesday Eve

Harbor Medical Assistants will hold their monthly dinner meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 17 at the Plush Horse restaurant at 8 p.m. An interesting fashion show has been planned consisting of uniforms, maternity apparel, lingerie and girdles. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. William Malin at the Medical Clinic of Torrance.

The slate of officers submitted by the nominating committee follows: Jean Davis, president; Myrtle Crane, president-elect; Harriett Morris, vice president; T. R. Brown, treasurer; Bettie Stoeber, recording secretary; Pauline Hewitt, corresponding secretary; Rose Marie Sampson, junior past president.

Officers will be elected at the February business meeting in the Medical staff room of the Torrance Memorial hospital on Tuesday Feb. 7 at 8 p. m.

Bridge Club

Mrs. D. P. LeGalley entertained her club at a dessert bridge on Monday at her home 231 Las Colinas Ave.

Mrs. LeGalley's guests were Meses Hazel Ward, Viola Shaw, Don Wolf, H. J. Osborne, C. L. Harmon, Elizabeth Davies and D. J. Quinlivan.

Mrs. Ward will entertain the club at its next meeting on Jan. 30 at her home 1625 Beech Ave.

Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf had as their houseguests last week Mr. Wolf's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berget of Reno, Nevada.

The class on medical terminology, affording college credits, which was sponsored by the Harbor chapter has an enrollment of 30 and meets at the South Bay hospital.

Membership in the organization is restricted to employees of doctors who are members of the California Medical Assn. Anyone eligible and interested may contact the membership chairman, Mary Lovelady, 4060 W. 226th St., Torrance.

Center To Benefit

The "Shape of Things to Come" will be depicted with rockets in clouds of red carnations, and space masks for the children when the Redondo Beach Dianas entertain with a "Dime a Dip Dinner" Monday, Jan. 16, at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, 400 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach. Count Down time will be 6:30 p.m. as families line up for their menu of ham, salad, relishes, varied hot dishes and desserts, coffee, tea and milk.

Fred Iseman will conduct Square Dancing for children and parents after the meal. Those serving with Mrs. John Moore, chairman, are Meses Emery Belyea, Barre Bodenlos, Arthur Callen, Anthony Credico, Charles Saterfield, Robert Dreizler, Marvin Anderson, John Warbritton, Elden Pratt, Robert Fawley and Christ Saunders.

Proceeds from the event will go to the South Bay Children's Health Center, announces Mrs. Milo Brungskill, president.

USO Needs Hostesses

The USO is putting out an SOS.

Junior hostesses are sorely needed at the USO-NCCS Club, 729 S. Burlington Ave., where some 200 servicemen are entertained each week-end under Catholic auspices.

Helen Burdick, director, says she can use fifty or more girls, aged 18 to 22 years, right now.

They will be assigned to five weekly periods — 7 to 11 p.m. Friday, 4 to 8 or 8 to 12 Saturday, 1 to 5 or 5 to 10 p.m. Sunday.

The problem is, so many eligible girls are retiring through marriage these days, Miss Burdick said.

She can be reached for interviews during the designated hours Fridays, Saturdays or Sundays.

Attend Theatre

Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf of Torrance will join their theatre group on Saturday Jan. 21 for dinner. After dinner in Los Angeles, they will see the new motion picture "Exodus".

At Nance Home

Concert Today Benefits Mental Health Program

A unique musical event, in the form of a duo-piano concert and reception will be held in the Harbor-South Bay-Peninsula this evening in the home of Miss Colette Nance 121 Los Miradores, Hollywood Riviera.

Miss Nance and Dr. Phillip Karr, two distinguished pianists will be featured in the concert, proceeds from which will be used to complete publication of "Our Community's Mental Health," a brochure based on the study and compilation of local statistics as part of the Mental Health Survey of Los Angeles County. The survey developed through the cooperative effort of the California State Department of Mental Health and the Regional Welfare Planning Council. For the purpose of the survey, all the communities in the area were treated as a unit. The brochure has been two years in compilation and will be presented for public information in the near future.

Flavian

A group of African students from UCLA will present a panel discussion on education in their own lands at the January meeting of the Flavian PTA, which will meet on January 19, 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The theme for the meeting will be a quotation from Socrates, "I am not a citizen of Athens, Greece, but of the world," announces Mrs. Jack Young, president. There will be babysitting provided and second and third grade mothers will act as hostesses for the evening.

Torrance High

A college and vocational advancement night was held at the January meeting of the Torrance High School PTA for parents of students of North, South and Torrance High schools. A general meeting was held in the school cafeteria and representatives from several schools and colleges conducted sessions explaining the advantages of attendance at the schools they represented. Mrs. Paul Roberts reports that parents in attendance were able to obtain first-hand knowledge of the type of schools their children were interested in attending. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria following the meeting.

Lincoln

"Health Menace" was the theme for the recent Lincoln PTA meeting at which time a film on the "Narcotics Story" was shown by the Torrance Police Narcotics Department, reports Mrs. W. T. Mooney, program chairman. The inspirational "When a Father Prays" was given by Mrs. Erwin Nordstrand. Featured chairmen for the evening were Mrs. Carl Bronson, health, and Mrs. William Still, parent education.

Hamilton

The Hamilton PTA January Association meeting will be held on the 19th of January at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Arthur Stilwell, program chairman, announces that the topic, "Building for Home Safety," will be discussed and expanded by Chief Northington of the Torrance City Fire Department. "As this is an ever-timely topic, and much valuable information will be given, any resident of this immediate area is cordially invited to attend," states Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, president. Mrs. Charles Griffen, Honorary Life Membership chairman, requests that any suggestion for an H.L.M. recipient be sent to the school or to her home (18007 Elgar).

Riviera

On January 28, Riviera PTA will sponsor a Riviera Day at the Los Angeles Philharmonic. Grades 4 through 8 will travel by chartered bus to the civic auditorium for a program designed to interest the young mind in symphonic music. Mrs. Phillip Karr, music chairman, is in charge of this project. Mrs. Charles Merlian announces a space movie program for January 21 at the Riviera cafeteria. There will be three showings beginning at 12 noon.

Perry

Beginning the new year, Perry PTA will have as its topic "Frontiers to New Worlds" when it meets on January 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The program will include talks given by Foreign Exchange Students sponsored by the American Field Service. Parent education and health chairmen will be featured. Musical numbers will be given by the Perry School Band under the direction of R. Large. The executive board announces that plans are under way for a polio clinic to be held March 3 at the school cafeteria. Also, the Safety Poster contest is now under way for the second year, under the direction of Mrs. William Lane.

PTA

Halldale

"More homes have television sets than have bathtubs" Joseph Sands told the members of the Halldale Avenue PTA at the regular meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 10, in the school auditorium. Sands, who is Associate Producer of Public Affairs for television station KNXT, discussed television in the home and its influence on children.

Members of the A6 class were introduced by their teacher Mr. Jack Cowger and their graduation plans were presented. Refreshments were served by the fourth grade mothers.

Founders Day program plans were made by Halldale Avenue PTA at the home of chairman Mrs. John Aurentz, 21219 Mari-gold, on Friday morning, Jan. 6. Assisting with the plans were Meses Donald Hartman, Edmond Alves, Jim Garland, Marvin Bowman, Ray Sloan, and Judson Bowers. The Founders Day program will be Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

223rd St.

Fathers of children attending 223rd St. School were the hosts Tuesday, Jan. 10, for the "old fashioned pie and ice-cream social," presented by the school PTA. Fathers also assumed duties as dishwashers, much to the satisfaction of all the attending wives.

Robert J. Purdy, associate superintendent of Los Angeles City School District, gave a talk on the subject of "Modern Trends in Education." Pupils in fourth, fifth, and sixth grades took part in the student participation.

Walteria

Miss Carolyn Bales, President of the Student body Council, at Walteria School gave a speech on teacher appreciation and what teachers have done to help her in the past and to prepare her for the future at the Walteria PTA meeting.

A teaching demonstration on reading was given by Mrs. Davis. Mr. Collins was the adult education representative and Mrs. Ted Neff spoke on the parents viewpoint of teachers at the Walteria PTA Thurs. Jan. 12.

Parents were seated at tables with their children's teacher to that all questions arising from topics given could be discussed with them.

The public is invited to a "Kidnap Koffee Klatch" that will be given Tuesday Jan. 17, from 9 to 11 a. m. in the recreation hall at Walteria Park

Los Artistas Show in Brea

Jan. 21 marks the opening of the Las Artistas art exhibit at the Brea Woman's Club, Brea Blvd. in Brea.

Many prominent southland women artists will show. There will be a tea opening day and the public is invited. This show will close Feb. 18. It is open to the public.
